October 18, 2014

The Canadian Evangelical Theological Association joins with the Faculty and Administration of Wycliffe College and the Institute for Christian Studies in welcoming proposals for papers to be presented at an Interdisciplinary Theology Conference, to be held Saturday October 18, 2014 at Wycliffe College in Toronto. This call is open to established scholars and practitioners in the theological disciplines, as well as to graduate students, post-docs, and pre-tenured faculty.

We encourage high quality papers on any topic of theological relevance to the broad theme of “Toward an Evangelical Feminism: Scripture, Theology, Gender.” Papers should be scholarly but not highly specialized presentations of about 25 minutes, aimed at an audience of students, pastors, and faculty from across the spectrum of theological disciplines. We are interpreting theology to include biblical studies; theological readings of Scripture; historical, systematic, philosophical, moral, and pastoral theology; theology that engages culture, the church, other academic disciplines, etc.

Proposals should be approximately 250 words in length. Please prepare them for blind review and submit as an email attachment, accompanied by a short CV in a separate file. To facilitate anonymous review of proposals, please include your name, institutional affiliation, contact information, and the title of your proposal in the body of your email. All proposals should be submitted electronically to the address below in *DOC, *ODT, or *RTF format. Please entitle your email “Toward an Evangelical Feminism Paper Proposal.”

Email all conference paper proposals to Allyson Carr (Allysonc@icscanada.edu) by August 15, 2014 (extended deadline). Papers chosen for participation will be notified by the end of August, 2014.

Graduate students, post-docs, and pre-tenured faculty are invited to submit finished papers by September 15 for the Jack and Phyllis Middleton Award for Excellence in Bible and Theology. Full rules for the theology award may be found at: <http://ceta-ctr.com/conferences/ceta-fall-regional-theology-conference>
